COMFORT CONFIGURED

The Custom Modular Lounge System

Flexibility is our credo. Our solution: Reefs flex! Its modularity makes it the ideal partner for contemporary communication spaces and lounge areas. Always with the option to adapt. The cleverly designed basic elements can be combined in various ways and can be connected very easily without using tools – from ultra-social to ultra-private – and very individually thanks to the huge selection of colours and materials.

Reefs flex

MINIMALIST, VARIABLE AND INDIVIDUAL

With the modules from Reefs flex
you can arrange things as you wish!

As people's work space and lounge blend closer and closer together, sometimes working jointly, sometimes on their own, Reefs flex remains flexible! Thanks to the clever design the components can be repositioned very easily and expanded with further modules and accessories at any time. Reefs flex thus offers scope for social interaction in informal meetings or workshops as well as privacy for working concentrated. The unique selection of modules, sizes and colours allows individual wishes to be realised. Tailor-made for any situation. But more flexible than ever – for lots of new mixing & matching!

SMART DOWN TO THE FINEST DETAIL
With its modular configuration,
this range offers almost infinite potential for combination. And a design that is very finely balanced.
By contrast, the seated comfort is always constant: simply the best!

AS MULTIFACETED AS NEW YORK

For relaxed meetings

Whether you are working together or having a relaxed conversation – groups need dynamics! Reefs flex provides this with scope to swap or rearrange seats or form teams.

WHERE WAITING IS WELCOME

For comfortable lobby
or brief stopovers

Reefs flex creates a setting for conversations and a free space to pause for a moment. Always open to changes, communicative and innovative. Even the skid frames blend in! In 7 colour shades – from traditional black & white to trendy mustard yellow.

SPACE TO CHAT

For relaxed meetings

Spontaneously start talking, reach an agreement and then break for a coffee ... This is efficient working. Furniture that can support this is in great demand – Reefs flex has the answer!

Just let things go, switch off from work and truly relax ... The best place to do this is at home! Reefs flex provides everything you need to do this: fabulously soft, inviting soft seating elements. Plenty of modules – and a wide range of colours – that can be matched to suit your rooms and imagination. For your favourite feel-good places where your heart feels most at home!

ATTENTION TO DETAIL

Subheadline TBD

As appealing as the look of Reefs flex is at first glance, the upholstery range is just as persuasive when you take a closer look. The soft lines wonderfully accentuate its appealing character. And as soon as you sit down, it becomes clear that the comfort is outstanding! There is also a selection of colours and fabrics that allows you to create harmonious combinations as well as contrasting arrangements.

PREFERABLY WITH COMPANY

Subheadline TBD

Simply indispensable for effective communication as a team: The new "employees" of Reefs flex are available to help at any meeting point. On hand if required – clever extras: an attachable tray with space for drinks, snacks and a smartphone or practical linking elements for the colourful skids of the modules, easy to handle to make the best connections. Feel free to add models from our Fiore club range or Allora poufs to this winning combination.

Modern office environments need to offer diversity. Work desks with optimum features and ergonomic office chairs are of course always in demand. But so are real alternatives to them, such as freely arranged, comfortable benches and chairs with armrests. They invite you to engage in spontaneous, informal conversations with colleagues. To relax with each other in a casual ambience. To chat openly at an equal level. Very much embracing the "new way of working"!

INFINITE VARIETY

Our good mood kit

Rigid specifications, fixed solutions? Not with Reefs flex! For the flexible modules transform restyling for waiting areas or relaxation zones from a laborious to-do task into an entertaining team event.

It's all about creating individual solutions: All components in the system can be combined however you wish. Direct linking is not a problem: The connectors that do not require the use of tools make it easy!
